Tribal Responses

- With grain of salt we share this with you; but also realizing that all tribal programs/agencies are not at the same place.
  - PPE
  - Safety Trainings
  - Leadership directives
  - Space
  - Funding
  - Staff
  - Access to medical testing
  - Key Component #1: Individual and Community Healing Focus

The Relationship Between Participants And The Healing To Wellness Court Team

- The power of the relationship with the client.
- The benefits of group & how safety protocols have impacted this.
- Key Component #6: Incentives and Sanctions
- Key Component #5: Intensive Supervision
- Key Component # 7: Judicial Interaction

Healing to Wellness Staffing

- Example of Laguna HTWC staffing
- What it looks like now
- Trainings for staff members
- Key Component #9: Continuing Interdisciplinary and Community Education
- Key Component #10: Team Interaction

The Court's Role During Challenging Times

- Completion ceremonies/graduation
- Judges Role
- Key Component #7: Judicial Interaction
- Key Component #2: Referral Points and Legal Process
- Key Component #3: Screening and Eligibility

Probation Considerations

- Drug testing
- Home visits, office visits
- Curfews
- Key Component #5: Intensive Supervision

Treatment Considerations

- 42 CFR Part 2-Substance abuse Confidentiality Regulation
- Best practices for conducting virtual programming including individual and group therapy
- Fidelity to the model of selected treatment material
- Access to residential treatment or sober living homes scarce or nonexistence during this time
- Key Component #3: Screening and Eligibility
- Key Component # 4: Treatment and Rehabilitation

Participants Progress in Treatment

- Regression in progress of treatment or program advancement
- Participants going through the phases too quickly due to lack of peer interaction and accountability
- Decreased motivation for continued virtual programming
- Key Component #8: Monitoring and Evaluation

Disadvantages of Virtual Programming

- Recovery in isolation
- Tribal communities and access to technology
- Not able to see participants in vivo
- Wellness Court Team also losing the face to face connection with each other
- Decreased alcohol and drug testing
- Increased risk of co-occurring disorders
- Predators online
- Home Group

Returning to the New Normal

- What is your new normal going to look like?
- Opportunities for your Healing to Wellness Court to regroup (Business of HTWC)
- Participants who have went AWOL/Absconded
- Team being flexible…more then usual (participants progress looks “different”, behavioral milestones look different, responses to behavior looks different)
- Public Safety/Public Health Concern
